

Network Manager -
Standard

1. User wants to monitor system performance

2. User authenticates with the program

i. If user fails to authenticate they can change their password

3. System verifies user

4. System displays appropriate interface - standard

5. Standard user has an overview of system performance

6. Tab for sending alerts to administrator

7. User can send feedback to admin

